Mission Statement

Education in Wenzao Ursuline University of Languages is founded on the Christian concept of faith in the uniqueness of the individual.

Curricula are designed to foster the growth of this uniqueness and the development of the whole person.

With Chinese language and culture as the foundation, the University seeks through foreign language education to provide an understanding of multi-culturalism and an international perspective.

Students are equipped with the academic and professional skills which will enable them to achieve linguistic excellence, acquire wisdom, develop leadership and serve society.
